

Balance Point Seminar with Linda Koutsky

February 27 & 28, 2010

9:00 am - 5:00 pm

Sponsored by Milwaukee Dog Training Club

This working seminar will include the following topics:

- Using a balanced approach to close the gap between training and performance
- Games to develop drive, speed and attitude
- The proper use of food: how to use it and not abuse it
- Rewarding “effort” vs. rewarding “behavior” – a new twist on reinforcement training
- Creative Compulsion: a game based method used to build attitude and WANT to work while correcting any error that may occur
- Hands On! How to physically help your dog to be right
- Body Awareness: teaching the dog how to use its body for accurate fronts, finishes, heelwork
- Attention: from puppy work to finished competitive product
- Speed: how to get it and keep it
- The truth about stays: putting responsibility on the dog instead of pressure
- Flashsessions: highly productive motivational sessions that anyone can do

Linda is the author of the popular “Front and Finish” column Balance Point. She has won over 40 HIT and HC awards. She and CH OTCH Wildfire’s Ticket To Ride UDX3 “Ticket” earned their 4th BCSA National Specialty High In Trial with a 200 out of Open B. Linda has over 15 years experience teaching competition obedience to students with dogs from all the AKC groups. Her students have earned HITs, HCs, OTCH points, and have been nationally ranked in their respective breed standings.
